Our Supporters

factasia.org is an independent consumer advocacy. We represent adult consumers in the Asia-Pacific region; we do not and will not act as a mouthpiece for the tobacco industry.

Individuals and corporations are welcome to register their support for our work and make donations, but all views or opinions expressed by factasia.org are ours and ours alone.

factasia.org takes care to ensure all information presented – in any form – is factual, rational and supported (wherever appropriate) by verifiable data.
