International Cigarette Prices

Do you want to know how much the cigarettes cost before you travel to a foreign country or state? At Cigaretteprices.net you can find international cigarette prices from all over the world. The prices are for a 20 piece pack of Marlboro (taxes included). Usually the price of similar brands like Camel, Pall Mall, Winston, Prince, Lucky Strike and Chesterfield are about the same. If you find information that needs to be updated or if you can contribute with the price in any country that is missing you are welcome to e-mail us by using the contact form at the bottom of the page. The cigarette prices are in euros and US dollars and are of course approximate.

EUROPE

The many countries and the wide range of economic situations make Europe a continent with a wide range of prices. In the bottom we have eastern European countries like Belarus, Kazakhstan and Moldova where you can get a pack of Marlboro for around one euro. In the top there are western countries like Ireland and Norway where a pack of cigarettes cost ten times as much.

NORTH AMERICA

The range of prices in United States is the biggest one in one single country. You can save about 8 dollars on one packet of cigarettes if you go from New York to South Carolina. Amongst the other North American countries Canada go for the high taxes and Mexico sticks with the low prices. In Central America and Caribbean the prices are also mostly low.

SOUTH AMERICA

In the few South American countries the prices are low. The two exceptions, Venezuela and French Guiana, have still pretty small prices compared to most of the western world countries. No idea to travel far for cigarettes if you are not going from the big exception Falkland Islands to Argentina or Bolivia.

OCEANIA

Oceania is the most expensive part of the world when it comes to cigarettes. The keywords are probably isolated islands, caring governments and tuff custom services. With a big boat with a lot of space for cigarette cartons I guess you could make a lot of money fast.

AFRICA

Not surprisingly Africa is a really cheap continent for smokers. In countries like Zimbabwe and Senegal you almost smoke for free. The big exception is Seychelles. It's all about isolated islands and tuff custom services again. And rich tourists of course.
